Welcome to the February edition of Prairie Neighbors!

It may be cold and dreary this time of year, but there is plenty to discover in the magazine this month. We are honored to introduce you to Gisela and Bert Habel of Pleasant Prairie for this month's Family Feature article - we hope you find their story as inspiring as we did. In the Sports section you'll meet Tim Nieman, longtime Kenosha soccer referee and all-around interesting person. Our Calendar of Events is chock full of indoor and outdoor activities for the whole family. And as always, please remember to patronize the wonderful local businesses that support our free publication, they are the heart and soul of our community!

We love reader suggestions and submissions! Send an email to tharrington@bestversionmedia.com with your favorite recipe, craft idea, or pictures from a local event. And be sure to let us know if you'd like to recommend a family for our cover story or an athlete or coach to be featured in the Sports section.

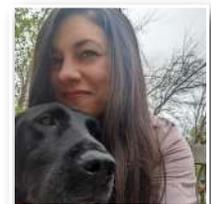

Have a wonderful February!

Dr. Jane Wright is Paving the Way Towards Better Dental Education for Kids

Jaime Johnson

Every author comes to the inspiration for a book in their own way, and for Dr. Jane Wright, Kenosha orthodontist and first-time children's book author, it came in the form of repeating herself. Dr. Wright has spent years coaching her young patients and their parents on proper brushing and flossing techniques and stressing the importance of tooth and gum care, not to mention working daily to make sure her own 5 children knew how to care for their teeth. As she grew more concerned with the knowledge gap so many of her patients were experiencing when it came to caring for baby teeth in particular, Dr. Wright knew she needed to give them something more. A search for children's dental education only increased her frustration – there seemed to be very little out there that would be useful and interesting to kids.

Dr. Wright eventually decided that if she couldn't find what she was looking for she would simply make it herself. Drawing on her experience as both an orthodontist and a mom of young kids, she created her own children's dental education in the form of a colorful, exciting storybook. The Capture of Clementine is geared towards children grades K-3rd and features the adventures of a tooth fairy and the children who befriend her. Artist and Kenosha native, Alice Gleeson (who is also the Wright's former nanny), was commissioned to illustrate the book. The Capture of Clementine is exactly what Dr. Wright intended it to be. The engaging story and captivating illustrations are sure to delight children from all walks of life while delivering a deeper message centered around tooth and gum care for kids. The Capture of Clementine was released in December 2022 and can be found at Barnes & Noble, select bookstores, and on Amazon.
